The 1961 Meta

Peabody High School

Peabody, Massachusetts

Foreword

As we are preparing to leave our school days behind forever, we are faced with the dilemma which plagues our time. We will be urged to work harder without respite and revaluation so that we will earn more money or climb higher in our field. We will be pressured to vote for this man, to buy this car, or to use this kind of toothpaste. In other words, we will become members of that violent force of the Nuclear Age that marches with such rapidity that it seems as if we will be left far behind if we dare miss a step.

Yet, a brief rest now and then, along the route replenishes the spirit, clears the mind, and gives energy enough to persevere with hope.

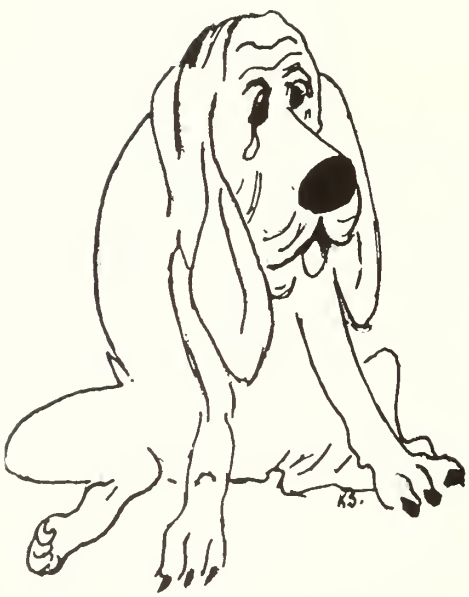
With this purpose in mind, we compiled our yearbook, a history of the past four years. This history should reveal itself as a television spectacular full of gaiety, love, and suspense.

We may see ourselves as freshman at our first school dance, later as suave sophisticates, etherized by the sweet odor of fresh flowers and the gentle sway of the music as we find ourselves at our Junior Prom.

The cheers of the crowd, the pulsing beat of our band, and our own eager voices full of ideas are again heard.

We may recall the experience of falling in love the first time, the thrill of getting that good mark on a test, and our first taste of fame and success.

The story is over, we turn away not with remorse or longing, but with the candle of hope re-lighted and augmented desire to serve the Master who made all things possible.



Dedication

MR. THOMAS J. CALLAHAN

WITH an air of familiarity and friendliness, Mr. Callahan has helped to guide us through the trying stages of our first two years in high school. As a teacher and friend, he has served as our advisor for our many problems and our chaperone at our various social affairs. With these qualities in mind, we hereby gratefully dedicate this, our Meta of 1961.

THE JACKPOT

EDITORS:

Circulation: 254 and growing — JUNE 11, 1971

With a touch of sadness we leave behind us our high school days. Gone are the football games filled with the anticipation of the crowd, the cafeteria and the excitement of our Junior Prom. We will no longer open books together or even pass each other with a friendly smile in the hall. This stage of learning is over; it is time to move foreward. But we have our memories with which to relive our high school days. Those precious memories of our teachers, and our friend, have been collected in this, our Meta of 1961.

T. V. Series, "Young Doctor Zimirowski" On 25th Year

ZIMIROWSKI ON 25th YEAR

NANCY NAFRANOVICH'S smash hit of the past two and one half decades is still going strong according to the latest T.V. polls. The series, produced and directed by PAUL HAIGHT appears on channel 1 on the early morning show at midnight. The lead role is TERRY "Kildaire" ZIMMEROWSKI who plays himself. At the moment the characters of this program are involved in a sort of love polygon. You see, Dr. Zimirowski is presently engaged to one of the nurses Esther Ether portrayed by ELAIN LOBAO. Esther, however, has been secretly dating the undertaker, Reggie Mortis, capably played by AARON GIBLEY. Reggie is, at the moment, double dating (or double erasing) with two of his clients — the widows Carry Agnunne and Annie Arsenic. These roles are played by JUDY SESSER and GLENDA KALINUK. CHARLOTTE CUSHING adds spice to the series with her enactment of Leslie Toile, the homicidal cleaning woman who is constantly plotting to kill the author and ruin the series. Ira Ketchum, in real life ARTHUR McGEE holds Leslie in check in his role as private eye.

Will Esther Ether marry young Dr. Zimmerowski? Will Reggie Mortis choose between Carry Agunne and Annie Arsenic? Will Ira Ketchum catch up with Leslie Toile before she murders everyone and solves the whole mess? Tune in tonight and find out.

DOUG BROWN will always be remembered for his clowning and teacher imitations. No junior could take his place.

WAYNE ADAMS leaves 100 lunches to any hungry junior.

NANCY HOULDEN leaves her high jumps and cartwheels to her cousin, Barbara Van Dyke so that P.H.S. will have a fine cheering squad next year.

WARREN POOLE leaves his "team spirit" to Jimmy Ashby. Good luck to the Tanners next season!

The whole SENIOR CLASS leaves the BEL-AIR DINER and some of our fondest memories to the Juniors with the hope that they will continue in our illustrious (and sometimes notorious) tradition.

Signed and witnessed this eleventh day of June, nineteen hundred and sixty-one.

Remember When

We graduated from grammar school and spent our entire summer wondering what "it's" like.

We were "Frosh" and were completely confused. And those schedules! "Can anyone tell me where 110 is? Where's the elevator?"

We learned about the Civics Club and Mr. Arnold. Our fortunate officers were Jill Hitchcock, Vice President: Jan Freedman, Treasurer. Our class room representatives were Hank Pabisz, Harry Parks, Eileen McCarthy, Dave Connors, "Mayshi" Allen, Terry Zimerowski, Mary Antunes, Solly Eskenas, Sherry Doucette, Fred Lomas, and Cathy Orgettas.

We (all the girls) had a blue ditty bag.

We had our Civics Club outing. Oh, pizzas and rides on the roller coaster just don't mix.
AND THEN . . .

We were Sophomores enrolled in the P.H.S. brain factory in our respective cell blocks. Again we had a Christmas ski outing sponsored by our Civics Club Officers, Jill Hitchcock, President: Barbara Lerner, Secretary: Rita Maistrellis, Treasurer: Betty Patterson, Assistant Treasurer.

We finally got to an assembly (in fact, two). One was sponsored by the Senior Class and was called "The Gary Less Show". It also featured the hula hoop champion of the world. The other was a documentary by Christopher Sheldon about his 18 month voyage around the world. We all asked "TB or not TB". But fortunately our TB patch test revealed we were all healthy.

We were threatened by a cafeteria boycott on December 3, and two days later Mr. Barry announced that we were to have a new cafeteria and a complete rehabilitation of P.H.S.

And as upper classmen we returned to find a new school with lockers and everything. We had an outstanding football team in 1959.

We all lined up to be measured for our class rings. How can we pay for them?

We (all the girls) enjoyed the Navy Band.

We received our class rings, now we are broke.

We elected Sherry Doucette, Bill Laakso, and Denny Healey to represent our fair city at the Girls State and Boys State Conference.

We were thrilled to see two Juniors in the play "Best Foot Forward". Naturally, it was a great success.

We had our Junior Prom and Mary Wilkins never looked lovelier. We had a beautiful day for our Nantasket outing. We had our finals and the Junior year is over.
SO AS SENIORS . . .

We elected our officers (Denny, Jill, Gail and Fred) to blaze our trail of glory.

We had a rousing (cheering) assembly to open our season.

We sponsored our Senior Barn Dance (no Bermudas). We enjoyed the play "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court."

With combs in hand, we trouped to Salem to see Mickey Mouse and say "Hi Picklehead". Oh, yes, we had our pictures taken also.

We were measured for cap and gowns and don't forget: How cute our handsome football players looked during the Charleston. How well Mr. Bezemes cooked a roast beef dinner for the Student Exchange from Marblehead. How beautiful were our Christmas Ball decorations with our green wreath.

How much noise and confusion reigned when pictures for the Meta were taken. How Karen, Dale, Brenda, Dolly, Jackie and Joanne hounded us for money.

How sad we felt on the last day of school. How much fun we had at our receptions, and our banquet. But above all, never forget the friends we've made.

President's "End of Term" Message

President, John Dennis Healey

Fellow Classmates.

Here we are at the end of our "high school" trail, a journey that has taken us through four of the most important, controversial, and joyous years of our lives. They are important years,, in that, during them, we laid the foundation for the rest of our lives. But, how well and how efficient can we construct the framework? The final structure depends only on how we utilize our talents and knowledge. No matter what we do from now on, our high school education will play an important roll in one way or another.

These past four years have been controversial ones in that they were the early years and therefore probably the hardest of our lives. Never before has the teenager been scorned by the public as has the adolescent of our generation. I honestly feel that we are just as competent and as capable of leadership in tomorrow's world as our parents were and are in today's.

Thirdly, our high school years have been blessed with an overwhelming abundance of happiness, whether in the form of personal friendships, great achievement, or any other of the many activities that were available. I know we will always remember the pleasant moments we have had with all our teachers, our friends, and our classmates.

All in all, I would say that we have been very fortunate in being able to obtain our high school education both in a patriotic commonwealth, which in part, leads the country, and in a democratic country, which in full, leads the world.

In conclusion, I just want to thank all of you for giving me the opportunity to lead you for the past two years. May your future be filled with an abundance of success and happiness and may circumstances be such that will enable you to attend our first reunion.

COACH PETE RETOS

The P.H.S. basketball team ended its Essex County League season in a blaze of glory even though it fell short of its quest for a share of the league. The Tanners finished with a respectable record of 13 wins and 3 losses, the best showing made by the locals in the county loop in many years. Victories over the league-leading Beverly and Gloucester fives in the last week of the campaign certainly ranked as the highlight of the season. Turn-away crowds were on hand to watch the Tanners nip Beverly 66-64 and then top Gloucester 75-70.

Hockey

Ending the season with a 9-5 record, the P.H.S. boys placed third in the Essex County League. In their bid for the title the Tanners were beaten by St. John's, 7-1.

In addition to the regular season of play, the Blue and White of the Tanners were invited to West Point to take on the Army Plebes. Although they came out on the short end of the score in a 6-0 game, the Tanners spent a wonderful time exploring life at the Academy.

With graduation this year the hockey squad will be losing the services of ten hard working seniors, Paul Champigny, Tom Spence, John Wyslowsky, Bill Bocknak, John Sweeney, Bill Laakso, Henry Wilgo, Denny Healey, John Kline and Charlie Niemchuck.

Returning to fill the vacancies left by the seniors will be Bobby Grusheski at the nets, Alan Fessenden and Paul Macione in the defensive department and for forwards, Al Richards, John Mansfield, Phil Pierce and Edward Nizwantowski.

Henry Wilgo led the team in scoring with 16 goals and 4 assists for 20 points. Tom Spence, Denny Healey and Bill Laakso followed with 14 points each.

Wilgo, for doing an excellent job during the season, was elected to the North Shore All Star Team while Tom Spence and Denny Healey received Honorable Mention.

ROOMERooms

ROOM 101

Miss Marie Coyle and homeroom representative, Karen Cassidy.

If you were a fly on the wall in Homeroom 101, here is what you would see:

Between 7:30 and 7:45 each morning JOHN BULAT is sitting at his desk reading Alfred Hitchcock mysteries.

The South Peabody bus arrives and in walk JOAN COMORA and SUE ALDUS, who dump their books and walk back out to find or make some excitement. Both are looking for someone special in 102.

Five minutes later the place comes alive. Who's that over there in the corner? Why it's none other than the anti-Coyle mob . . . DOUG BROWN, DAVID CONNORS and ROGER BUMP cooking up a sure way to get an A in conduct. Look who's helping them—JOANNE DRAGON and SHERRY DOUCETTE! !

Meanwhile over at the other side of the room GLORIA BARNETT and CORINNE DZIERZAK set up shop. (Beauty shoppe that is!) Their first victims are DENISE CRONIN, MAUREEN CUSCUNA and JULIE FLEMing. Every so often they all look longingly over at TERRY BROWN'S beautiful, long, red hair.

Then who should walk in suddenly with her hair sprayed black, BEVERLY CANN, the class expert on fashion. She really was the object of stares that day. I wonder if a certain boy from 105 liked it that way.

In come our shop boys ALLAN BROWN, BOB ANDERSON, and RONNIE ALMEIDA, showing off their new jackets. Bob had to get rid of his other jacket—it had lipstick on the collar.

What's this at the back of the room? WILLIAM BOCKNAK, DICKIE BOYCE, and ROSS BROWN are approaching some strange looking pirate? Why it's PAUL CHAMPIGNY. Seems as he got carried away at one of those hockey games. (I mean on the stretcher!)

LINDA CIMAN and GRACE BETTENCOURT are studying for their 5th period exam, with the help of a 3rd period student. All the other girls from Mr. Greehy's history class listen closely to what they are saying.

JUDY DiGERONIMO (she's not part Indian) is telling her neighbors all about her date line-ups for the coming week.

FAITH DEANE is still in the hall, talking with that boy from 102.

JOHN ACTIS lends a happy note to the early morning hours by coming in with his head all bandaged up. Those desks in 101 are alive. Seems he will live though, much to the regret of SANDY BLAISDELL and PAT BETTENCOURT, who have to listen to his chatter about most any subject.

Our class Secretary, GAIL ARVANTIS, arrives on the scene just in time to be called down to the office to lend a hand in the plans for our reception.

What's this we hear! ORIN CORNING is trying to get a group of Maverick's together for the after school hours.

ROBERT CLAPP, trying to study his physics, is continually disturbed by ERNIE CLIMENSON, who would rather flirt with the girls than study, and needs Robert's help to attract a certain blonde's attention.

As the last bell rings, in dash JOYCE CALIRI, MARY ANTUNES, JANICE CAPPY and DIANA FOISY just in time. It seems Mary's car broke down on the way from "Johnny's".

A roar of laughter comes from the center of the room. CHARLOTTE CUSHING just handed MAYSH ALLEN the proofs from the play, "A Connecticut Yankee". Charlotte looks lovely in her Queen's gown and doesn't Maysh look adorable in his long black wig and tights ! !

In contrast to this gaiety, we find PEGGY CANAVAN grumbling — you might have guessed it—KAREN CASSIDY is bleeding her and everyone else for their class dues.

The second bell rings, which finds Miss Coyle giving out permission slips to JOHN APOSTOLIDES and WALTER BLAZEWICZ to go to band. They lend a musical tone to our chatter on Wednesday mornings. We can all hear them through the ventilators. WAYNE ADAMS and NORMAN AINBINDER also skip out on their way to Driver's class.

Homeroom 101 will always remember the patience Miss Coyle demonstrated towards us, and hope that there is some left for next year's seniors.

ROOM 102

On this particular morning, I arrived at school early and hurried anxiously down the corridor to my homeroom—the best, of course — ROOM 102. Hardly in the door, I gasped desperately for air. I knew it, JONNIE EAGAN was up to his old tricks again. (SUE GAMBY wrote JONNIE'S secret name — PEACHES!—all over the blackboard.) Now he's declaring war with smoke signals. Did you ever see anyone's hair turn gray so quick! While looking around, I saw JOHNNY FREEMAN blushing and no wonder — there was JILL HITCHCOCK counting his freckles, screeching, "Bonus! Bonus!" In fifteen minutes JILL had counted one thousand!

Then suddenly, without warning I heard a loud noise that sounded like an automatic 45. The room was filled with sighs of relief as we realized it was only TOMMY CRANE and BOB GARROW doing the Mexican Hat Dance on Mr. Donahue's new wastebasket! Meanwhile in the back of the room, LAURIE GRANT was carving his name with some movie actress (BB) everywhere and I mean everywhere, while "FLASH" GORDON was serenading him with his wailing clarinet. Sets the mood doesn't it? Finally the last bell rang and Mr. Donahue took the attendance. While reciting The Lord's Prayer, GEORGE FOSTER'S voice was louder than anyone else's. I guess he needs all the help he can get to keep his license. (Only kidding, GEORGIE!)

After doing our good deed for the day, we began our own recreation period. Feeling something slink by me, I turned to see JOHNNY GALARIS sneaking in ten minutes late. Boy, did Mr. Donahue "blast" him! Poor MARY HOBEY, who was "bombing" FRANCIS EAGAE with questions, was reprimanded by Mr. Donahue. JANICE FREEDMAN, EDSON ELSER, and LINDA KUSHNIERUK, all studying quietly (or at least trying to) almost fell on the floor. But not BOB FOSS, who had secured his landing belt — smart kids, one thing though, where did he get the belt- . . . (I'll never tell!)

Before the commotion ceased, a voice from the back of the room was calling, "Here buggy! buggy! Come on, Stinker Bell! Yes, you guessed it! Determined to be heard, GLENDA KALINUK jumped on her desk screeching, "ELIOT, how many times have I told you to leave our mascot alone, and by the way, it's a he NOT a she! If that didn't send NANCY HOULDEN and EILEEN KALLELIS into a fit of laughter, nothing ever will!

After paying my nickle, I acquired a seat. SOLLY ESKENAS'S of course. You see, he is a vacation perfectionist who doesn't believe in a five day school week. He needs two days off during the week to get rested for the weekend (He gets a paid vacation by charging a fee for usage of his desk.) Everytime someone puts a nickle in, our Homeroom "Rep," DALE HARDY comes dashing over to collect the money. He's attracted by the clanging sound the money makes. One day, our President, DENNY HEALY, dropped his wrist watch on the floor. You never saw such delicate mechanism disappear so fast! (I warned DALE someday he would get more than what he bargained for!) Yes siree, we have the BEST Homeroom Rep!

I recall an announcement over the loudspeaker telling us there will be gum chewing allowed today only. You should have see PAT KOHUT, LINDA KUSHNIERUK, ELAINE KLIGMAN and MARIE JACQUES chewing "rag time". Of course, DOTTY KANARACUS was leading the quartet and doing a fine job. (We can count on DOT!) Oh yes, I saw some girls in the worry department located in the corner. There was ETHEL KIRLIS worrying about the "wandering" Waves wandering around with the Navy, SHIRLEY HICKS worrying about fitting her hope chest through the front door before the blizzard comes, and NATALIE KARPINSKI just plain worrying. (Now why would she worry—perhaps about being an old maid. NOT A CHANCE!) I began my homework and suddenly the order bell rang. DONALD DILLAWAY tried sneaking out the rear door with RICHARD DOELL, BILL DRURY and JOSEPH FOSTER hot on his heels. As usual, BRUCE GARLAND tied the curtain strings together and JIMMY FRENZO, who was hurrying to meet a certain blonde, tripped over the knotted cords. He pushed PAUL HAIGHT, who was hopscotching with ROSE HAROU, and they both were out like a light! Did you ever see such a professional game of WHAMO? As I looked around, I saw LARAINE JODRIE hiding underneath Mr. Donahue's desk so she wouldn't sink with the crowd.

Mr. Edward Donahue and Homeroom Representative Dale Hardy.

Looking forward to first period, I picked up my books and headed for the door. Unfortunately, Mr. Donahue called us all back to the room. Luckily for me, I tripped over GUZO'S (BOB GUZOWSKI) recipe book and after I had recovered, I found him sound asleep, licking his chops! (He's always dreaming up some scrumptuous Polish dish.) I then met JOAN HEENY who tried to convince me we should try to sneak down to SHOP. I told her we weren't dressed for it, but that didn't stop her . . . funny I haven't seen her since! !

On opening my locker, I saw this cute little red head doing a ballet (so I thought!) I asked SHERRY HEENAN if I could be of assistance when BAM—BAM — books everywhere!

Before going to 204, I stopped at the bubbler across from 105. I thought I heard a beatnick speak but it was only ELLEN FOTI reciting poetry to ANN GERRISH. While she was reciting, Ann was taking it down in shorthand. (at 10 miles — OOPS! words per minute.) Little did DAVE know where she was getting those romantic poems!

As I trudged up the stairs, the huge steep stairs, the heavy high stairs, the creaky, squeaking stairs, I saw CYNTHIA KLEMCZYKY and BONNIE GOULD running around in their gymn suits.

At last, I arrived at my class ten minutes late. You might know it was Friday the THIRTEENTH!

In closing, I want to wish everyone of my classmates the best things there are obtainable in this life. At this time, the pupils of Homeroom 102 would like to show their appreciation to Mr. Donahue for being so patient with us throughout the year. Good luck. God bless you, the Class of '61, and may health, wealth, and happiness shine forth in trying times throughout your life. So long, see you at the Reunion!

"Shh!" I'm Trying To Study."

Well, maybe I can get to the room, and start my homework before,—oops, too late, there's ARTHUR LABERIS and RICHARD JOHNSON. (I wonder if they have finished their homework). Next time I leave my homework to watch the "Untouchables," I'm going to have my head examined. Speaking of the "Untouchables", here come DICKY LOBAO and JOHN KLINE.

The noise from the lockers, sounds as if someone's fighting the Civil War all over again. Every time FRED KIMBALL and WINN KELLEY close their locker doors, I'll bet you can hear it in 313. That ROBERTA MARMER! How she does ever manage to carry all those books — oops, I guess she doesn't. I wish I had done this homework, so I could listen to all the latest news. BARBARA LERNER, JOANNA LALICOS and FRANNYY MAHOS seem to know everything even before it happens.

What's that! ! Man the life boat ! "Seniors" out first! Run for your life! Sorry folks, false alarm. It's only STAN LIGNOS and JOHN KUSHOWSKI and BILLY LAAKSO re-enacting last nights hockey game.

It seems as if I have company, because RITA MAISTRELLIS and KATHY McCARTHY are struggling with last nights "Devoir Francais". (I wish them luck). Here I am trying to figure out this simple math problem while JOHN KUSHKOWSKI and DAVE KUTCHIAN have a problem on the board that looks as if it might settle the "world situation".

I can't help thinking bout the "Untouchables" again, because PETE LINDELL, ALBERT LARRABEE and ALFRED LA CORTIGLIA are here sporting their new vocational jackets. If PETE HINCMAN, GLENN HUDSON and WALTER KOLODZIEJ knew I didn't study for the test today. I'm sure they would do less talking.

Time flies when you need it. Miss Carroll is in the corridor looking for those few late stragglers. RENNY HOYLE and RUSSELL LEBEL come in with some comment on how they had trouble driving in from "West Peabody". I think they are just trying to attract attention so that ED LITWIN can enter in the back door. BRENDA LANCASTER always seems to be late and hastily begins her shorthand. Our poor homeroom representative!

1——2——3—— what next? You guessed it — KARL KARRA is counting the hot lunches while DONNA LACORTLGLIA tries hard to squeeze a few pennies out of her generous classmates for a very worthy cause. (I hope my teachers feel generous today because the bell's about to ring and I'm not anywhere near being finished.)

Here comes HERBIE JACOBS with another excuse to be dismissed. But Miss Carroll's smarter and he's still here.

Miss Anna Carroll and homeroom representative, Brenda Lancaster.

Why on earth did EILEEN McCARTHY and JANE MANNING bring dolls and dresses to school? Come now, girls, we're Seniors!

TERRI LOTEN'S transistor seems to entertain LOIS MARTIN, but it doesn't get my homework done.

I wonder if BARBARA LECAIN would mind copying the rest of this page for me? Oh well! She seems to enjoy looking at wallet pictures with ELAINE and MARY LABOA at the scame time discusses boys with TEENY MARTIN and JUDY LE BRUN.

A conversation of an entirely diffcrent nature seems to be going on between JOHN "TEQ" KLIBANSKY and STAN KARNARSKI. I wonder what's so interesting.

I've finally come to the conclusion that our homeroom is not the place to do last night's homework, but I wouldn't trade it for any other homeroom.

Never will we forget the many people who helped to make our homeroom ring with laughter and gaiety. May the future paths of each and everyone lead to all happiness and success in the world.

SENIOR
BARN DANCE

ROOM 104

Mr. James Greehy and homeroom representative, Dolly Nekoroski.

AROUND THE WORLD

"Mr. Greehy, your dream has come true. I have found out what all my former classmates from 104 are doing today!"

I boarded my private plane at JOE MARTIN'S well-known airport only to find the pilot was PAUL MORONEY. Since we landed at the French Airport with some difficulty, we had to go to the hospital for a checkup where we found CLAUDIA MESSENGER, our famous "Florence Nightingale."

I climbed into PELKEY'S (ARTHUR) Taxi. The only part of it that resembled a taxi was the sign.

He let me off at CAROL McMANUS'S Food Shop. When it came time to pay the bill, she wouldn't cash my check so I went into the bank across the street. Guess what? FRED LOMAS is the manager. I was happy to find someone trusted me!

We saw GEORGIE PADIOS and TOMMY MURRAY riding around in Georgie's sports car. Tell me boys, are the girls better over there? "Not really!"

After leaving France, I went to Russia where I was received with a great ceremony by the Russian Premier, DOLLY NEKOROSKI, who handed me a paper headlining "JOHN PASTERNAK — Now in Orbit."

I was escorted to the salt mines of Siberia where CLINT NEWELL laboriously giving commands, waved to us in the Premier's helecopter piloted by BILL NILAND. Returning to the Premier's royal residence I found LIANNE MICHALLYSZYN, the personal hairdresser of her Excellency.

To my surprise (HA-HA) I found myself just in time for the Olympic Games. CHARLES NIEMCHICK was on the U. S. Olympic Hockey Team and TOM MURPHY was on their Football Team. Both played a splendid game but lost gallantly.

I then visited the Land of the Pyramids. There I was met by KEN PARRISH who was leading a camel caravan.

HENRY PABISZ, the guide, told me that RACHEL NEMPHOS, ran a clinic to treat Asiatic flu.

DAVE MARSHALL and MIKE MARTWICHUCK gave me the three dollar tour through Turkey, land of enchantment. A wise old fortune teller, PETE O'CONNOR told the three of us, that Hawaii should be our next stop.

In Hawaii we were greeted by three dancers, KATHY MUSE, JUDY McNEIL, and PRISCILLA MINNOT. As we walked by the beach we saw DAVE MASON, sleeping under a palm tree with TOMMY NOLAN serenading him.

From Hawaii to the Old West' Our first sight as we enter the town was KEITH MARTIN who was still a "Freshy" at Le Tourneau College. Before we could get back to our hotel a hold-up led by KEN LUSSIER and his famous pardner, NANCY NAFRANOVICH, took place. "Okay you guys, get 'em up!" Ever-ready JACKIE McCARTHY, the Sheriff, came to the rescue and soon captured the bandits.

Our trip home from Texas was piloted by jet flyer and astronout, ARTHUR McGEE.

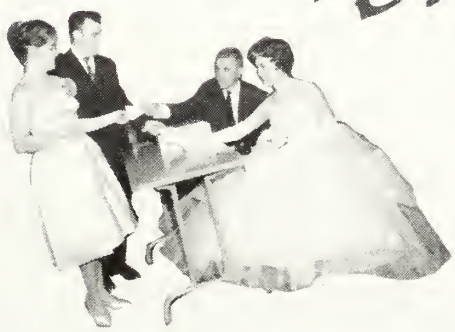
From the airport we were picked up by McDONALD'S Taxi and Laundry Service. Whatta name, Charlie!

Homeward bound we passed the Hollywood Barber Shop where RUSS MARRON and CHRISTINE MILLEA were talking about JEFFERY LORD, teacher of U. S. History at one of the local grammar schools. "See, Mr. Greehy, he does like History!"

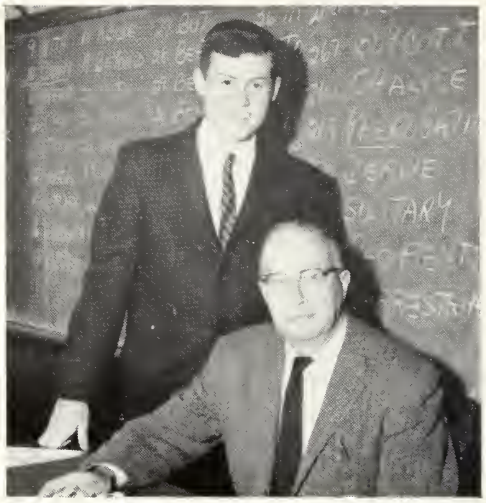
"Some day, Mr. Greehy, we hope to be visiting all these wonderful places again, but never will we three forget that wonderful place, 104."

CHRISTMAS

BALL



ROOM 105



Jack Sullivan, homeroom representative and Mr. Edward Gorman.

Good Heavens! Somebody missed again! I can't understand why these people can't walk up to me, a basket, to throw away a piece of paper. The only one who hardly ever misses me is that JAMES RETOS. I guess I should expect that, since Jimmy is captain of the basketball team. There he is now in the back of the room being congratulated by a group of girls for a well-played season.

Ot! Oh! I guess Mr. Johnson is patrolling the corridors again, for here come JUDY SHEEHAN and KAREN SNYDER, still arguing about termites in the lockers!

Are those boys sitting on the radiator again? Thank goodness, I'm not big enough to sit on one—I'd like to know why ROBERT SIMONS and GILBERT THIBEAU can't sit on chairs instead of desks and radiators. Maybe Bob and Gil were too busy listening to GERALD STOCKMAN and GREGG THIBODEAU argue about electronics to realize what they were doing.

Hold on to your hats, everybody! There go MARCIA SMIDT and ELIZABETH PATTERSON out to collect attendance slips. I simply don't know what the office would do without Betty and Marcia!

Hey! What's so funny in that circle of girls? GRACE ROSSIGNOLL, EVELYN SACHETTO and NELLIE SIEBER are hysterical with laughter. Wait one minute! What's on the floor? Oh! It's only CONNIE SANTORELLA picking up the paraphernalia that popped out of her overstuffed pocketbook. Well, her pocketbook isn't the only thing that's overstuffed. Honestly, the way paper is stuffed into me is disgraceful! Here come some MORE gum wrappers. I wish somebody could tell my why KATHY ORGETTAS is so generous with her gum. Now that she has passed her last piece to ROBERTA PATENAUDE, who is talking with JUDY SESSER about Distributive Ed. I can relax for a while.

At least SOME people are working in this school, besides me. I see WARREN POOLE is diligently studying his history this morning, since he has just finished exchanging jokes with several classmates. Not far away from him, I see MARITA ROKICKI trying to decipher that hieroglyphics which she calls shorthand.

Why, even DAVE TRAINOR and BILLY TUCKER are busy working; that is, trying to duplicate someone's homework.

Poor MILTON SILVA is attempting to do his calculus homework, but all the girls seem to be pestering him for a picture. Finally, he promises all of them his best pose.

Ah, me! I'm always complaining! I imagine I should be happy to be housed with some of the leading lights in the class of 1961. Speaking of popular people, I see my good friends, DONALD ROSE, President of the Vocational Club and GEORGE SWANTON, Treasurer.

I certainly should be happy, for I spent many pleasant hours after school listening to the never-ending rehearsals of "Connecticut Yankee". Was I proud when three members of this class, SPERO SAXON, JIMMY PARAKIS and JUDY RAFFER made their debuts in that play.

I think that JIM SAMPSON ought to get a ribbon for Best Helper of the Year. What would 105 do without him?

Now what's all the commotion over near NANCY PARISEAU. BOB PYBURN, and JOHN JACOBITZ? Oh! Heavens! Are they still being congratulated for getting their licenses! No—I think Nancy is describing the way the clutch shook when she was so nervous. By the way, will somebody tell me how the letter "J" gets into this homeroom? I suppose that it's none of my business. Nancy, Bob and John are not the only ones interested in cars. I hear that JOCKO POWERS, STEVE SHOER and GEORGE SAWYER are discussing car races again.

I wish with all my heart that I didn't have to stand near the paper supply. Here comes JOAN PODHASKI to get some now. I am so abused here. Bang! Clank! I knew it! it never fails. Everytime someone comes to get paper, I am kicked right in the shins! I wonder whom Joan is joining. Oh! It's MILLIE PERNITCHI and BARBARA SFILIOTIS talking about boys again.

Oh! At last silence is beginning to creep over the room. I see JOHN SULLIVAN, class representative, has an announcement to make. Thank goodness Jackie always stands on the other side of the room. (Now he can't kick me!) It seems that Jackie is trying to persuade the class that they must pay their class dues. Completing his speech, he scratches his head and hopelessly sits down, but is quickly cheered up when PAT STANLEY and PAULA SULLIVAN insist that he has made an excellent attempt.

Goodness me! Is TOMMY SPENCE still selling raffle tickets for the hockey team? I wonder if JOHN REDDING or ANDY SLEPOY are interested. How can anyone refuse when Tommy mentions that he has to sell about fifty books!

I see that among others in this room MARIO REGIS and JOHN SOROKO have their new band sweaters. GEORGE SILVA seems to be talking to them about the Navy. That's all I seem to hear from him these days.

Mr. Gorman has asked for quiet for the last time now and the hum has begun to subside. Peace and quiet at last . . . Hey! Let me out of here—Somebody H-E-L-P ! Oh, wait — it's only Mr. Gorman signifying the end of the prayer period with his deafening rap of his knuckles on his desk ! !

I see MARGARET SIDERAKIS hurrying down the corridor so she won't be too late and close behind her is DONNA RYAN who is entering with her usual sweet smile which means, "Am I late?"

Of course, Mr. Gorman declares that neither one is late, since the bells aren't ringing today. I know that H.R. 105 wants to thank Mr. Gorman for being so understanding and interested in their doings? In reviewing my life this past year, I hardly think that a waste paper basket has had a better life than I have had in H.R. 105.

CHEERLEADERS '61

ROOM 106

Joanne Wooldridge homeroom representative with Mr. Albert Sternberg.

They say the best things come in small packages and homerooms are no exception. Although 106 is only half the size of the other senior homerooms the wonderful gang of boys and girls in there more than make up for this fact.

First on the scene every morning is JOHN VOTAW, a tall, good-looking blonde. But I don't think he came to get all his homework done.

How lucky can a homeroom get! This one has not one, but two tall, good-looking blonde boys. JOE WADE just came in and made a beeline for the windows to watch for the West Peabody busses. Anyone in particular, Joe?

That joke about a "West Peabody Stagecoach" is no longer just a joke. Every morning now, HELEN WAGG comes down from Hog Hill in a "Conestoga". It's better than walking, maybe.

Speaking of getting to school, SANDY TIMSON was complaining that she was having trouble getting here from South Peabody because traffic was so slow. It could be a coincidence, but she says traffic practically disappeared when DON VENEDAM came roaring out of his driveway. Don would not comment.

Perhaps he ought to see PETE TWISS, 106's favorite (and only) shop boy who is, I hear, a pretty handy "guy" with a wrench. Pete is usually found near one of the local ponds.

We used to think that JOANNE WOOLDRIDGE was a really quiet, shy girl but when she became our homeroom representative, we found out differently. She just captured poor LLOYD WALMSLEY and made him pay for his cap and gown. Such feeble excuses as the fact that she is taking your lunch money are not accepted.

Someone ought to tell the Pepsodent people about ANNA XANTHAKIS. Her ever-present smile will be welcome wherever she goes.

If you're wondering how one room can make so much noise, the answer is simple. Just put ELAINE TAVIS and JOYCE WARD together and that's all you need. They never run out of conversation.

If you attended basketball games at all, then you know who TERRY ZIMEROWSKI is. We're all proud of the job he did. Of course with a pretty girl like JOAN ZALEWSKI to cheer for the team, what can you expect?

GAIL TRUDEAU seems to think there there is much more interest outside our homeroom. Mr. Johnson has to shoo her in every morning. (His name is Paul.)

Looks like Pete has another customer. MARGIE WINER, our contribution to the world of the theatre, says her gray convertible is in one of its bad moods again and wouldn't start this morning.

Do wonders never cease? GEORGE WILFORD is here for the third day in ONE week! Congratulations, George: you're getting better all the time.

The room livened considerably, as it does every morning, with the arrival of DICK WAYMAN. Though Dick only came in the middle of our junior year, he has made himself widely known since then.

One of our latecomers, MARY WILKINS, doesn't seem to be around, but I think she can be found somewhere near 102 talking to Jimmy.

Track practice must be rugged, because FRANK TRUEIRA is complaining of "Charlie horses." Funny, he never has any trouble getting to biology class and I don't think its "Gadus callarias" he's interested in.

DOROTHY YASKELL is still tryin to find those missing copies of the last issue of the Observer. Anyone with any information please contact her.

ELLEN WOODBURY must be interested in something more than good books from the number of library permits she gets. I'll have to go up and find out.

Well, the final bell has rung and it looks like HENRY WILGO didn't make it again. He challenges anybody to beat his record for the most late slips given to one person in one year. Any takers?

As we leave Peabody High forever, we in 106 want to wish all our fellow Seniors and the underclassmen the very best of luck and happiness for the future.
